DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-8, 18/1-8, 19, 20, 24 and 25, drawn to a buffer memory address translation device, an optical disk drive, a medium, or a program.

Group II, claim(s) 9, 18/9, 21 and 26, drawn to a sector address information reliability determination device, an optical disk drive, a medium, or a program.

Group III, claim(s) 10-16, 18/10-16, 22 and 27, drawn to a defective sector determination device, an optical disk drive, a medium, or a program.

Group IV, claim(s) 17, 18/17, 23 and 28, drawn to an ECC block synchronization detection device, an optical disk drive, a medium, or a program.

The inventions listed as Groups I-IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

1) Group I does not require a sector address information reliability determination device as required by Group II, and Group II does not require a buffer memory address translation device for storing read data in a region corresponding to a generated address in the buffer memory as required by Group I;

2) Group I does not require a defective sector determination device as required by Group III, and Group III does not require a buffer memory address translation device for storing read data in a region corresponding to a generated address in the buffer memory as required by Group I;

3) Group I does not require an ECC block synchronization detection device as required by Group IV, and Group IV does not require a buffer memory address translation device for storing read data in a region corresponding to a generated address in the buffer memory as required by Group I;

4) Group II does not require a defective sector determination device as required by Group III, and Group III does not require a sector address information reliability determination device as required by Group II;

5) Group II does not require an ECC block synchronization detection device as required by Group IV, and Group IV does not require a sector address information reliability determination device as required by Group II; and

6) Group III does not require an ECC block synchronization detection device as required by Group IV, and Group IV does not require a defective sector determination device as required by Group III.

A telephone call was not made to the applicants' representative to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement due to the nature of the application, e.g., foreign applicants, and the need for the examiner to promptly act on the application.

Art Unit: 2653

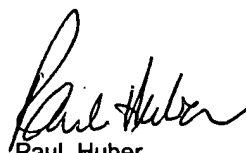

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
